ABOUT

A stunning table accessory from the renowned brand Christofle, comprising of chiseled silvered bronze and blown and cut crystal. The base of the accessory is exquisitely adorned with vine and fruit motifs, while the center of the lower crosspiece is embellished with a cluster of berries. The vase, fashioned in the style of Charles X glassware, is made of thick crystal with wide grooves and features ogee edges and scalloped cuts along the sides and edges.

Marks are visible on one of the feet: an impressed factory seal (from 1844 to 1935, Maison Christofle utilized the silversmith's hallmark known as the balance stamp) and "CHRISTOFLE". The piece is numbered 1183175.
